MUSC Health – Charleston Division
QUALITY ASSURANCE &
PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT PLAN
2022 - 2023

OVERVIEW:

The Medical University of South Carolina Health System (MUSC Health) is committed to fostering an environment that promotes high quality care in all its domains: safe, timely, effective, equitable, efficient, and patient centered, in all locations of care. This commitment has developed into an institutional strategy that aligns governance, managerial and clinical support functions and personnel to continually assess our performance and proactively identify opportunities for enhancing quality and safety.

MUSC is comprised of the University (which is itself comprised of six Colleges), MUSC-Physicians (the practice plan), the MUSC Health (comprised of a network of one academic and several community hospitals, joint ventures, and affiliate partners). The MUSC Health clinical enterprise consists of all entities that are directly related to providing patient care. This plan focuses specifically on the MUSC Health – Charleston Division.

This Quality Assurance and Performance Improvement (QAPI) Plan establishes the framework and structure for continually and systematically planning, designing, measuring, assessing and improving performance of system-wide key functions and processes that support high quality and safe patient care within the MUSC Health clinical enterprise. Central components of this network are as follows:

- Incorporate quality and safety planning throughout the enterprise;
- Create an organizational structure that allows units to integrate their improvement efforts and collaborate across unit and departmental boundaries;
- Communicate improvement efforts throughout the enterprise to foster institutional learning and encourage innovation and problem-solving at the unit level;
- Assure project prioritization, process design, and redesign are consistent with the mission, vision, and values;
- Foster institutional self-assessment exercises that benchmark our performance against best practices in all facets of quality and safety;
- Promote evidence-based practice and high-value care in all we do;
- Integrate error reduction and reliability procedures in all healthcare processes;
- Integrate the utilization of performance improvement principles in the daily activities of the workplace;
- Integrate the principles of High Reliability in all we do;
- Continuously enhance a Culture of Safety (Just Culture, Learning Culture, and Reporting Culture), continuous learning, and leadership engagement in all areas (components of High Reliability; Appendix B);
- Link the education of our students, trainees, and care team members to the science of quality and safety;
- Foster and support innovative approaches to enhance quality and safety;
- Enhance interprofessional team training and team work;
- Foster patient engagement as a safety strategy;
- Encourage provider wellness and safety programs as a safety strategy;
- Foster research and implementation science that critically examines how to improve quality and safety.

ORGANIZATIONAL VALUES:

The clinical enterprise relies upon a core set of values to achieve its stated mission. These values are as follows:

Compassion

Teamwork

Diversity

Accountability

Innovation

QUALITY DEFINITION:

The clinical enterprise adopts the Institute of Medicine's definition of quality which is "the degree to which health services for individuals and populations increase the likelihood of desired health outcomes and are consistent with current professional knowledge". All domains of quality as noted by the IOM are adopted: safe, timely, effective, efficient, equitable, and patient-centered.

ORGANIZATIONAL QUALITY REVIEW GOVERNANCE:

Quality and Safety is an interdisciplinary structure that drives and coordinates all improvement activities of the domains of quality within the enterprise. This structure represents a systematic organization-wide approach to planning for quality results. Through various committees and communication channels, improvement efforts are identified, prioritized, and quantified.

In general, there are two types of performance improvement projects. The first are the large-scale, organization-wide performance improvement projects. These projects are initiated by senior management to support key strategic and operational objectives. The second types of projects are the smaller-scale, service projects. These smaller projects are initiated from within any component of the organization and are reported in the component's operational committees. When organization-wide projects are launched or completed, project milestones are approved by the Quality Executive Committee (QEC), comprised of ICCE and senior leadership. Project progress is monitored/reported to the Quality IMPROVE committee, comprised of leaders from quality, performance improvement, ICCE units, and strategic partners.

The full quality agenda is monitored extensively by the QEC and the MEC. The QEC agenda is separated into 4 sections:

1. Event Reviews
2. IMPROVE projects
3. QAPI Reports
4. Strategic quality area reports

Event Reviews

All significant events are investigated by MUSC Health risk-safety team, by means of a thorough and credible Root Cause Analysis (RCA) to determine whether the events are deemed a sentinel or serious safety event as defined in MUHA policy C-49. All event action plans are reviewed and approved by both the MEC and QEC. All action plans are assigned a champion, a process owner, and a performance improvement facilitator. The champion is expected to eliminate barriers in the implementation of the remedy. The process owner is expected to lead the team. The facilitator is expected to assist the process owner in adhering to the IMPROVE format (Appendix A).

IMPROVE projects

IMPROVE projects are focused performance improvement projects that follow our IMPROVE methodology, which are identified by:

- o Patients and families - Through complaints, comments, or patient satisfaction surveys.
- o Care team members at all levels - Through voluntarily occurrence reports (patient safety intelligence), from representatives on the quality committee, culture of safety survey or employee engagement survey.
- o Senior Leadership – When performance on goals falls below target
- o External Benchmarks – From the review of quality/safety benchmark reports from external agencies or registries
- o Regulatory Agencies and Healthcare Payors - The Joint Commission, Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Environmental Control, and other Health Care Payors.

Before a project can become a formal IMPROVE project, it is brought before the Quality IMPROVE committee and approved as a project. This is done to ensure interdisciplinary assessment of the project to properly assign resources and expectations of completions. All projects are assigned a champion, a process owner, and a qualified facilitator.

QAPI Reports

Each ICCE and functional area has an active and high-functioning QAPI. The QAPI is chaired by the ICCE Chief or quality designee. The purpose of the QAPI is to identify quality opportunities and close gaps. The QAPI should focus on quality metrics that are publicly reported; quality metrics that are aligned with the strategic priorities of the unit; and quality opportunities identified from serious / sentinel events, regulatory surveys, or internal safety reports (e.g., SHIELD reports).

Strategic area quality reports

Other areas that are strategically important to the quality structure will also report to QEC, based on the existing subcommittee infrastructure. Examples include Patient Safety, Infection Prevention, and the Value Institute.

MAJOR COMMITTEE GOVERNANCE:

The Board of Trustees:

The MUSC Board of Trustees is responsible for the quality of patient care provided. The Board of Trustees requires the medical staff to implement and report on the activities and mechanisms for monitoring, assessing, and evaluating patient safety practices and the quality of patient care, for identifying and resolving problems, and for identifying opportunities to improve patient care and services or performance throughout the facility.

The Board of Trustees is supported by the MUSC policies, Medical Staff Bylaws and this QAPI Plan. The MUSC Board of Trustees delegates and directs the Hospital Administration and the Medical Staff to:

- Recommend the strategic direction.
- Require reports and mechanisms for monitoring and evaluating the quality of patient care services to include the frequency of monitoring.
- Provide resources and support systems for performance improvement functions related to patient care services and safety.
- Require mechanisms to assure that all patients with the same health problem are receiving comparable levels of care in MUSC Health.
- Review information needed to educate the Board members about their responsibility for the quality and safety of patient care.
- Evaluate the Quality and Performance Improvement (QAPI) Plan every other year.

The Medical Executive Committee (MEC):

The MUSC Medical Center MEC is comprised of senior physician and administrative leadership from all components of the clinical enterprise. The MEC has responsibility for overseeing, supporting, and evaluating the quality and safety structure and outcomes. This committee is the structure that ensures medical staff leadership and involvement in performance improvement and that ensures coordination and accountability among department chairpersons, faculty, and residents. The MEC delegates the responsibility of physician performance improvement to the Department Chairpersons. More specifically, the purpose of the MEC is to ensure high-quality, safe, patient-centered, and cost-effective care throughout MUSC's clinical enterprise.

The MUSC Health Quality Executive Committee (QEC):

The MUSC Health QEC, made up of senior leadership representing each of the ICCE units as well as other functional areas, oversees and coordinates the performance assessment and improvement activities within the organization. This group ensures that improvements are planned, designed, measured, analyzed, and sustained. More specifically, the QEC:

- Operationalizes improvement activities that are consistent with the MUSC Health Strategic Plan.
- Receives reports and acts on issues and initiatives that address each of the domains of quality.
- Uses performance data in the design and evaluation of new services or programs.
- Identifies improvement actions to be taken, assigns responsibility for each action, and ensures accountability for follow-through.

- Oversees analyses of sentinel and serious safety events and ensures appropriate risk reduction strategies are implemented.
- Oversees organizational proactive risk assessment (example - Failure Mode Effects and Analysis) and ensures appropriate risk reduction activities.
- Selects, prioritizes, and monitors the progress of the organization-wide quality improvement projects.
- Allocates financial resources necessary to support organization-wide quality improvement projects.
- Manages the flow of information to ensure effective communication and follow-up.
- Communicates performance assessment information and improvement activities to the MEC and MUSC Board of Trustees.
- Ensures that the quality and safety infrastructure meets regulatory standards.
- Supports QAPIs in meeting organizational goals

QAPI TEAMS:

Each ICCE unit and functional area at MUSC has a QAPI, whose mission is to achieve and surpass benchmarks for their specific area. Each QAPI is chaired by the ICCE Chief or relevant quality designee. Each QAPI regularly meets to review current performance and create-implement improvement plans to close any gaps in performance.

Specific Responsibilities:

- Ensure progress to closing identified gaps in performance for their area of responsibility.
- Develop improvement plans and remove barriers to effective action.
- Collaborate with other units/areas as needed.
- Report progress quarterly to QEC.
- Each QAPI team should focus on:
 - o quality metrics that are publicly reported
 - o quality metrics that are aligned with the strategic priorities of the QAPI
 - o quality opportunities identified from a serious / sentinel events, regulatory surveys, and SHIELD reports

The Quality Improve Committee:

The IMPROVE Committee is made up of senior leaders, administrators, directors, appropriate physician leaders, and performance improvement leadership and team members. This committee oversees the quality IMPROVE process and ensures that the process adheres to a standard quality improvement methodology. The Committee receives IMPROVE projects from the QEC, schedules timely reviews of the projects, and ensures that the actions are appropriate to the identified problem and completed in a timely manner. The Committee makes recommendations to the QEC to modify the original charge if necessary, close out the project, or convert to a QAPI-related activity (or other governance group).

COMMUNICATION STRATEGIES:

Effectively communicating quality and safety performance horizontally and vertically is extremely important to ongoing engagement and improvement efforts. As such, the Quality and Safety structure has developed a repertoire of communication modalities and techniques

- Tiered Briefs: This is a daily communication modality to “look back” and “look ahead” for any threats to the safety or operations of the enterprise. Leaders from all areas gather information from area huddles (Tiers I and II) and report out in a “roll call” fashion to Tier III and IV, then cascade any relevant information to their respective areas.

- Safety Rounds: These are four times weekly rounds by leaders from all support areas (safety, risk, infection prevention, IT, security, pharmacy, etc.) to front line in all areas, to identify and resolve any and all issues identified as threats to patient or care team safety. Many issues are resolved during rounds; others are assigned an “owner” and progress is reported back to the area leader to inform their team of progress being made on safety issues. In between rounds, issues can be communicated by anyone by email to: patientsafety@musc.edu.
- Safely Speaking: This is a daily email-based communication that covers an evidence-based tool, technique, innovation, or idea that can enhance patient or care team safety. The purpose is daily recognition and awareness of safety issues and efforts within the enterprise.
- Clinical connections: This is a weekly email-based communication modality that covers a quality-safety section, with an intended audience of physician providers (including residents).
- GME: Quality reports are communicated to trainees and program directors at each and every monthly program director and chief resident meeting.
- Onboarding: Quality and safety education and operations are conveyed to each and every new care team member via their respective orientations (physicians, GME, leaders, and care team members).
- Other: Quality and safety reports are part of standing agenda items at each and every of the following meetings: Board of Trustees, Medical Executive Committee (MEC), Administrator-Director-Manager (ADM), and Physician Leader meetings.

PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT METHODOLOGY:

In an effort to continually improve organizational performance and maintain the safety and quality of patient care, MUSC Health evaluates the development of new processes as well as the redesign or improvement of existing processes. A systematic approach is utilized to:

- Problem solve, identify the new process or potential improvement.
- Assess/test the strategy for change.
- Analyze data from the test (to determine if the change produced the desired result).
- Implement the improvement strategy system-wide when applicable.
- Monitor for sustained change.

The IMPROVE Management System is the daily management system that utilizes improvement methodologies such as Lean, Six Sigma, Project Management and Change Management in the journey to Zero Harm for the patient, families, and care team members (see also Appendix A).

All improvement projects use the A3 methodology. Education, training, and relevant templates are located in the Our Day Learning Module:

<https://www.myworkday.com/musc/learning/course/5a0b1751f9bd1001f922efe873570000>

SELECTION OF QUALITY IMPROVEMENT PRIORITIES:

Organizational quality improvement priorities are selected both proactively and in response to problems that are identified through ongoing assessment of data and analysis of adverse events. More specifically, the following sources of information are used to identify improvement opportunities:

- Strategic planning process
- Benchmark and other external comparative data
- Patient satisfaction data/complaints or concerns from patient-family advisory councils
- Employee concerns or complaints
- Occurrences, near misses, and unsafe conditions from voluntary reporting

- Sentinel events
- Serious Safety events
- Other performance data from quality registries or benchmarking databases
- Common cause analyses from voluntary reporting
- Surveys of care team member engagement and culture of safety
- Risk areas or events from other organizations or entities
- Claims data
- Unit-identified concerns or system vulnerabilities
- Concerns or system vulnerabilities identified from any existing communication modalities (feedback from safety rounds, safely speaking, daily check-in, unit huddles)
- Concerns or system vulnerabilities identified from mortality reviews
- Concerns identified through the compliance hotline or human resources

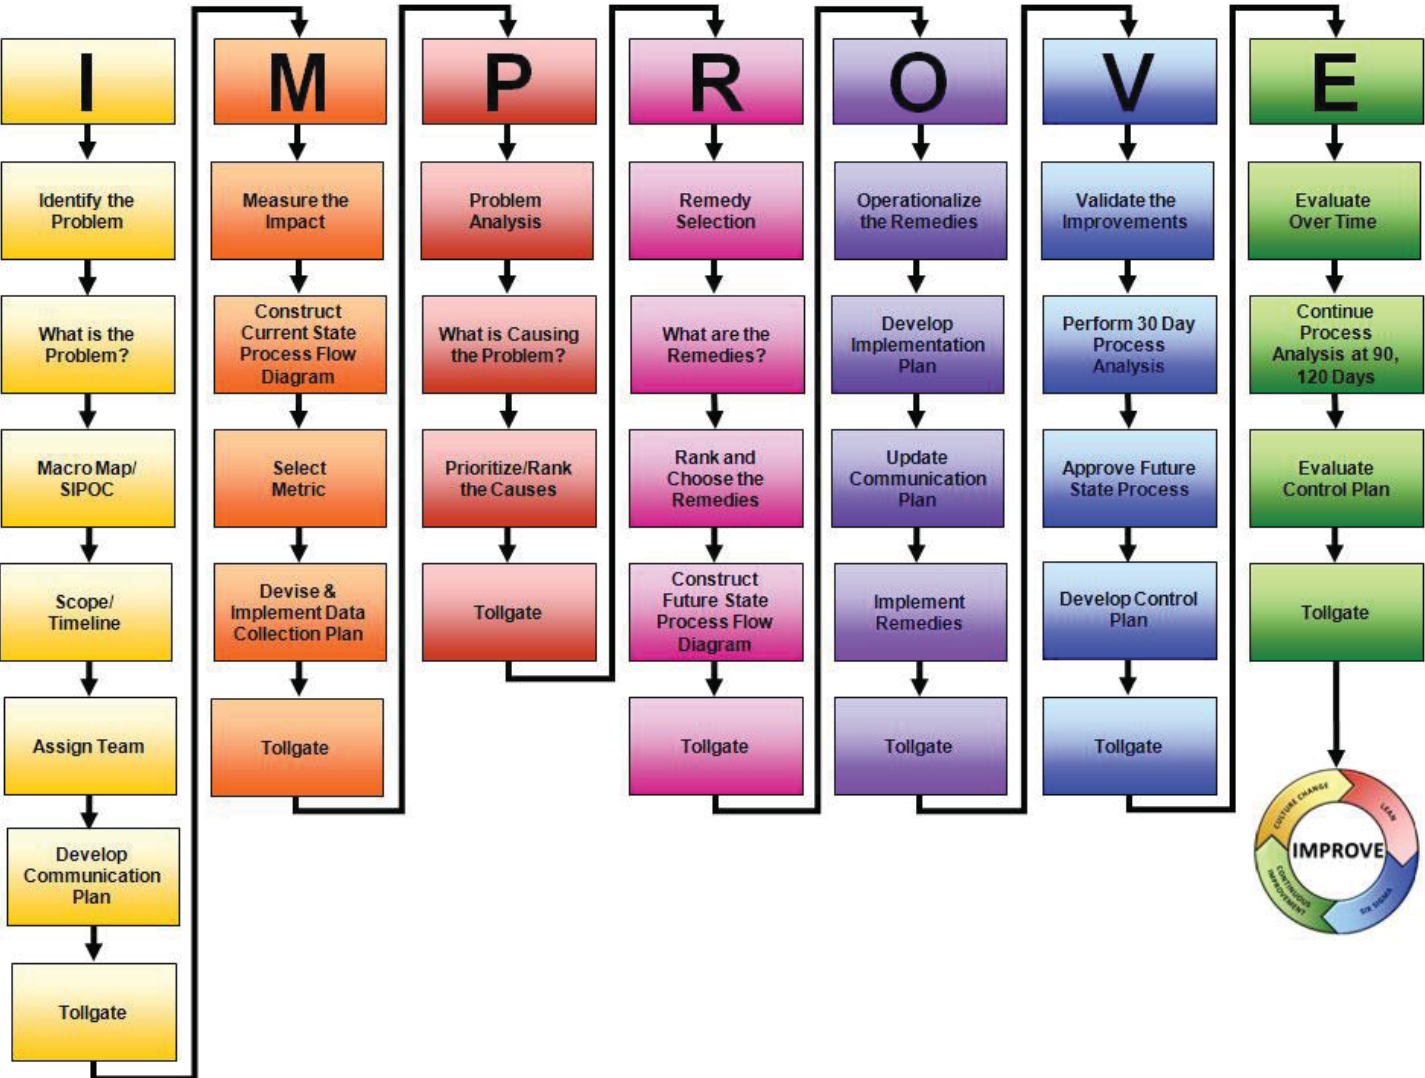

ANNUAL EVALUATION:

HOSPITAL EXECUTIVE REPORTS
Divisional CEO Reports	Florence: Dr. Zebian spoke on behalf of Mr. Hinesley. He said that he would share report cards at next month's meeting. We are looking forward to reaching year end targets and establishing goals for 23-24. Black River is doing well, seeing increases in inpatient admissions as well as ED volume. At Marion, they are looking to start a residency program in July 2024. Lancaster: Mr. Broome said that they are continuing to grow the Indian Land market, opening an orthopedic clinic in June. We are also looking towards building a medical office building on the Indian Land Hospital Campus. Lancaster launched an air transport service with a helicopter dedicated to the market. So far, 40 transports out of 74 calls in month. This will be good for the region as there are hopes coordinate with the cardio volume in Columbia. Lastly, Chester is working with the Dept. of Corrections and has a census averaging about 20 out of 36 beds. Lancaster will open a smaller 12-bed unit for behavioral health patients from the Dept. of corrections later this year. Midlands: Mr. Littlejohn said that the Midlands is working to grow our surgery presence in the area. The Midlands just launched the Specialty Pharmacy which will give us access to 340B pricing for our patients which gives our patients great service. We're looking at ways to costs of travelers as the Midlands where we have the largest number of travelers.	Informational
Divisional CMO Reports	Florence: None Lancaster: Dr. McCutcheon gave a shout out to Dr. Avinash Juneja who assumed the role of Divisional Hospitalist Medical director, overseeing all operations for Lancaster and Chester. Lancaster received a Leapfrog grade of B. Thanks to the Midlands cardiology team who provided 814 ports physicals and 100 limited Echo screenings for hypertrophic cardiomyopathy – a $73,000 benefit to the community. Another shout out to Dr. Hewitt who was recognized with a Certificate from DHEC for the hospital as "Pediatric Emergency Medicine Prepared". Midlands: Dr. Holmstrom said that the Midlands is working on pediatric friendliness in our ED. Leapfrog scores are up in the Midlands: Downtown–A, NE–A, and Kershaw-B. There is robust recruitment with a new Gastroenterology group taking over in Columbia. Two neuro-hospitalist coming on board, combined with our recent launch of continuous EEG capabilities. We have a 2nd Board certified vascular surgeon joining us in late July. 4 Primary Care providers coming in the next 15 weeks. 3 new ED physicians, 2 Urgent Care physician, and a Wound Care physician. In house dialysis as started at Downtown with a limited dialysis program coming to Kershaw soon. We have a letter of intent for another interventional and structural heart cardiologist. A certified colorectal surgeon that will join us in the near future as well as expanding pulmonology. The Midlands had a successful "Health Me, Healthy SC" event (a joint venture with Clemson University) in the Winnsboro community recently near the Fairfield ED.	Informational
